

The LIGHTHOUSE

Presbyterian Women of the Synod of the Northeast

FEBRUARY 2008

Moderator's Message....

Winter is almost over! With spring comes thawing out, renewal and growth. We are blessed to have several exciting activities sponsored by Presbyterian Women in the Synod of the Northeast during May to jumpstart that renewal and growth. Consider attending the Healing Retreat at the NJ shore, the Spiritual Retreat in Syracuse, NY or the Horizons Bible Study at Stony Point, NY. You were mailed flyers for all of these events, details are also on the website PWSNE.org. What a great way to prepare your mind and soul for whatever is next in this life! We are blessed and very fortunate to have quality leadership for each of these events. Perhaps your PWP will want to send their Bible Study leader to study with the author of the new Bible Study and get ideas to share.

Presbyterian Women has so much to offer. Be sure to share your PWPs activities and events with those that are not involved. How else will they know what they are missing? We do so much in Mission both here and around the world, way too many people have no clue just how much. Let's not hide our light! Our greatest asset is the love and care we show one another. I am a perfect example of that. The last 18 months or so have been life changing for me. So many of you have reached out and made this time ever so much easier. I know you do it for other women as well. We are special for many reasons, not the least of which is our capacity to show concern for one another. Keep up the good work!

I will look forward to seeing you soon!

-Sandy Grillo

Spring Events and Summer Gathering

We have so many wonderful opportunities for gathering together to learn, renew, refresh and enjoy one another in the upcoming months. For your convenience the Spring Spiritual Retreat, the Healing Retreat, the Horizons Bible Study and the July '08 Gathering at Stony Point registration forms are all included in this issue. Be sure to note the registration deadlines – you will not want to miss out on the events you plan to attend!

Quilt Squares, Palm Trees, Mattresses and Bicycles

Quilt squares hand-crafted by Presbyterian Women will again be the chief memento given to Global Partners at the Churchwide Gathering in July, 2009. Does that seem far away? It won't when I tell you that the deadline for receiving the quilt squares will be January 20th, 2009. That's only a little less than a year from now. The reason quilt squares were chosen again was that the women absolutely cherished these beautiful small works of art. Each quilt square must be 12 inches by 12 inches. No special backing will be required this time. Consequently, the squares can be completed anytime and sent in. In addition, any pattern, whether traditional or modern, can be used.

To review, the Global Partners are the women the Global Partners Team invite to the Churchwide Gathering. (The Global Partners Team is just one of the Gathering Planning Teams that met in Louisville in January. It's my team.)

Each Synod PW will be asked to provide 6 quilt blocks. (All PW Synod Moderators will receive further information about this program.) Finished quilt blocks (along with the name and address of the quilter) should be sent to: Roberta Mansfield, 20 Lerner St., Warwick, RI 02888-2505. Questions can be addressed to her at robertamansfield@cox.net. Her telephone number is 401.781.1628.

I urge all Presbyterian Women to visit the Presbyterian Women's web site at www.pcusa.org/pw. A great deal of information is available about all PW programs. Since I have served on the Mission Relationships Committee of the Churchwide Coordinating Team, my favorite area of the web site is Mission Matters. Together in Service is the hands-on mission program of PW. Congo Gift Cards are a great way to do alternative gifting for any occasion. The cards can be purchased at $5.00 for a package of 5. The card can be sent to let your recipient know that you have made a donation in their honor. The donations themselves can be made either online or by mail.

Because of the devastation of war, the Democratic Republic of the Congo lost many of the palm trees that provided the cooking oil that is a staple. In fact, the palm oil was being imported. A twenty thousand dollar investment from PW will provide 80 hectares of palm trees that will generate $200.per year for thirty years to subsidize educational programs, hospitals, and clinics. A $20.00 gift to the Palm Project will purchase about 10 plants.

When loved ones or we have a hospital stay, we take it for granted that there will be a mattress on the bed. In the Congo, many patients won't have a decent mattress. Presbyterian Women can provide a hospital mattress for about $60. This helps to continue the work that was begun by a 2005 PW Thank Offering grant that helped provide new mattresses to hospitals in Congo and Malawi.

The bicycles that are needed in the Congo will be used in a different way than we may imagine. Imagine the older son in a family pushing a good quality bicycle loaded with 400 pounds of produce, headed for a city market. This simple vehicle will enable the family to generate income that they can use to buy things they cannot grow themselves. Such a bicycle can be provided for a donation of $80.

The Congo Gift Cards can be ordered from Presbyterian Distribution Service (PDS). The order number is PDS# PWR07421. Call (800) 524-2612 or order online.

The donations for Together in Service projects in the Congo can be made online. Or they may be sent to PC(USA), PW Remittance Processing, PO Box 643652, Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3652. Specify PW Palm Project , mattress or bicycle on the memo line.

July '07 Triennial Gathering of Presbyterian Women in the Synod of NE

The theme, Open Unto Me: Blessings and Abundance, A time of Personal Reflections and Renewal was evident in the plenary and learning circles. Some highlights of the program were a Taize worship service, the graduation of the Sisters Stand and Walk Together participants, a comedy act, Side Street Sisters and Father Scott, plus the opportunity to hear the Churchwide Moderator, Catrelia Hunter speak. 190 women attended the event. The freewill offering totaled $3,500.00. Half was given to the Moringa Tree Project and half to the Leadership Scholarship Fund.

News from around the Synod....

Albany Presbyterian Women would like to wish everyone a wonderful New Year! We are planning a vigorous year with a lot of events. Our PWCT has two new members. A Spring Gathering is being planned and will feature the subject matter of Domestic Violence, installation of officers and displays of church missions. A Fall Retreat is being planned and a training session for the PWCT at Camp Hebron. At the Retreat we will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of PW. Stone soup will be made and served on site for lunch.

A lot of communications have been through the e-mail system. I still send out the hard copies to the women that are not connected to the Internet. I have been attending Presbytery Meetings and Presbytery assigned a person to come visit our PW meetings. I am learning a lot as Moderator and I have a lot more to learn. I feel like I am a “work in progress.” The Albany PW are a very energetic and enthusiastic organization. Without these dedicated and hard working Presbyterian Women, Gatherings and Retreats would never be as successful as they are today! A heart-felt thanks to everyone! —Gloria Ghirarduzzi, Albany Moderator

REPORT

First of all, thank you for sending your coordinating team rosters and your additions and corrections. As some of us change again, please continue to send them to me and to the PW Synod Secretary, Virginia Champlain. When you send individual changes, please be sure to indicate your Presbytery.

On an FYI matter, the order form for fall/winter expires on 2/28/08. To order the spring one, the id. # is PWR-08-001 (and the fall/winter one that is effective 9/1 will be PWR-08-002).

As we continue our training cycle, your PWP Coordinating Team should be “trickling” down the information from the PW Synod trainings to your local church groups. A review of your coordinating team positions and By-Laws (if changes were or are made), should also be in process. I

As we celebrate our 20th anniversary perhaps you would be interested in obtaining a speaker from the Presbyterian Historical Society. Contact www.history.pcusa.org, its address is: 425 Lombard Street, Philadelphia, PA 19147-1516 and the telephone # is: 215-627-1852. This is also a good time to delve into PW history in your Presbytery or local church. In Southern New England, we looked at a file with pre-merger info going into the merger area. Is it a good time to recognize the women in your Presbytery or Church who were part of this? As you may have noticed, one of the first CCT meetings took place in Stony Point, NY and the picture is on page 40 of the January/February 2008 Horizons magazine.

A further historical point is also in the January/February 2008 issue. It is the beginnings of the Mission Yearbook. It all started with a predecessor of Presbyterian Women (PW), the Women's Executive Committee of Home Missions preparing a simple Calendar of Prayer to help women's societies pray for missionaries on designated days in 1892. Three years later, the first mission yearbook appeared. It was called the Year Book of Prayer for Foreign Missions. In 1971, the name changed to the current yearbook we know today. It has the longest history of any denominational mission and prayer book in the United States. This issue also has the history of the merger of UPW AND WOC. It is a wonderful issue and a great source for gatherings. This era of history (the merger-1982 on) is of particular interest to me as our Fellowship became a church at the General Assembly gathered in Hartford, CT in June of 1982, at which time, as you know, the merger of United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. (UPCUSA) and Presbyterian Church in the United States (PCUS) was also voted on and our local women's group “joined” PW in 1983 so it is our historical era too. In 1987, PW was approved by the GA and in 1988 PW came into being.

Another great resource I have recently found is IDEAS! for church leaders. You can access on the web at: www.pcusa.org/ideas. Subscriptions are $7.00 per year. Address is: idea! subscriptions, PO Box 643745, Pittsburgh, PA 15264-3745. Checks payable to “Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.)”. Your church should be receiving a copy (free) so you may be able to preview an issue by speaking with your office staff or pastor before you subscribe.

Gifts of Women Sunday for 2008 is also coming up. If March 8th doesn't work for your church or Presbytery schedule, you may have a Gifts of Women Sunday any time or you may incorporate “Gifts of Women” into a gathering. If you do not have the information, the free resource is available online to be downloaded at www.pcusa.org/women or from Presbyterian Distribution Service at 800-524-2612, order #27538-07-001. It is also in the November/December HORIZONS magazine.

World Day of Prayer is March 7th. If you do not have a Church Women United unit in your area or the time does not fit your schedule, you may have a celebration in your local church. A resource was sent out but if you did not receive one, the contact information is as follows: gcalvin@wdpusa.org, or World Day of Prayer USA Committee, 475 Riverside Drive, Suite #300, New York, NY 10115, 1 866 937 8720 (888WDPUSA0). Website is: www.wdpusa.org

This year's theme is “God's Wisdom Provides New Understanding” written by the women of Guyana. Resources are available including leaders/planner guide, worship service bulletins, Bible Study, Children's Service, poster, music (tapes, CD) banner, etc. (Also available in Spanish.)

I read in an article recently that occasionally it is good to remind ourselves of all we have “going for us”. This list would be longer that we could put in this newsletter on our PW history and you could no doubt come up with your own things to add that you treasure about PW. Maybe another theme?! As always, contact me if you have questions or comments, need help with resources or even just to “chat”. My contact info follows:

Attention PWP Moderators

July 1 is the deadline for PWP Annual Reports to the PWS Secretary. You may either do your own report or fill in the blanks on the Moderator's Annual Report Form that is available on the PWSNE Web page. It was determined at the last PWS CT meeting (November 2007) that only one copy needs to be sent to the Secretary (via US or electronic mail) and that all reports will be posted on the PWSNE Web page.

If your term expires this Spring, it is your last official duty so that the incoming Moderator has one less thing on her plate and can use yours as a model for the next year.

Also, don't forget that the PWS Secretary does collect the PWP Directories to keep on file if ever information is needed throughout the year.

Thank you, Virginia Chaplin, Secretary

In Jerusalem she worked with the United Nations Relief Works Agency (UNRWA) among Palestinian refugees and later taught at St. Paul's Mission School in Damascus, Syria

Lucy volunteered as a short-term missionary for four summers with the Armenian Missionary Association of America (AMAA). She introduced crafts to coordinate with Bible Study to summer camps and daily Vacation Bible Schools that over 10,000 children attend in Armenia, Georgia and Ngorno Kharabakh. She is the national chairperson of Summer Camp and Christmas Joy Packages.

As an award-winning artist, Lucy has had two professionally produced videos of her artwork "Journey to Resurrection" and "Uprooted".

Lucy is a member of West Side Presbyterian Church, Ridgewood, New Jersey. She is the Elder chair of the Spiritual Growth Committee and a member of the Art, Mission and Social Concerns Committees.

Call

“and he sent them out to preach the kingdom of God and to heal.” (Luke 9:2)

Jesus sent followers out to do what was essential: to share Good News and to bring healing to a hurting world. As present-day disciples, we are called upon to continue Christ’s compassionate ministry. Each year, women of the Synod of the Northeast gather to respond to the call of the Great Healer. Together, through study, silence, sacrament, and sharing, we find a deeper understanding of God, self, and one another as we embrace the nurturance of a committed and caring community.

Monday, May 5, 2008 1:00pm
Three Nights

St. Joseph by the Sea
South Mantoloking, NJ

Sponsored by Presbyterian Women in The Synod of the Northeast

Theme: - Water of Life

Genesis tells us that, out of the “watery chaos” life was born. Our own Book of Order reminds us that, through the waters of baptism, we are given “new life.” Jesus declared, “Unless I wash you, you have no share with me.” And, the Book of Revelation offers the hope that God’s children will be guided “to springs of the water of life,” where “God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.” Water imagery abounds in the language of our faith. The healing properties of water have long been celebrated. Join us, as we gather by the sea, for a time of healing and reflection, to consider the restorative powers of water for our spiritual and physical wellbeing.

Facilitators for Healing Retreat

Donna Bassett, a Reiki Master/Teacher is the owner of Lifecycles, a Holistic Practice located at the Wellness Spa in Glens Falls, New York. Donna has worked in the healthcare field for over 23 years and has seen first hand how preventative rather than curative healthcare should be used as a blueprint for wellness. Donna strives to empower everyone to take responsibility for their own health and well-being by focusing on a “wholeness” approach to maintaining balance and harmony of body, mind and spirit through the ever-changing cycles of life. She has shared her gifts as a holistic teacher/facilitator at healing retreats, hospitals, schools, colleges and seminars. Donna feels that Reiki isn't just something she does, but rather the way she lives her life: with unconditional, non-judgmental love and compassion for everyone she meets.

Susan L. Gleason is an ordained Minister of the Word and Sacrament of the Presbyterian Church, USA, and a member of the Presbytery of Boston. She has served as a pastor, associate pastor, and Christian Education Director. A firm believer that the Bible is not merely “an ancient text” but “The Living Word” whose message is powerful, provocative and applicable to each of us, Susan enjoys sharing its message of hope and healing through worship, songwriting, dramatic arts, prayer and study. A mother of three, she resides with Charlie, her husband of 28 years, and their dog, Caesar. Her hobbies include long-distance cycling and crocheting.

Nydia H. Mitchell, a former international executive, knows first-hand how everyday pressures can effect our essence spirit. As a Reiki Master, co-active Spiritual/Life Coach, Retreat Coordinator and Nutritional Advisor, among other things, she works with individuals to acknowledge and gently guide self-love and healing. Nydia has a passion for laughter, loves to cook, grows her own food, and brings her work as a visual artist to her spirituality. Through her knowledge of nature's gifts, she will contribute to our discussion on healthy, creative living and self-care. Nydia believes that “How and what we feed our Spirit, Mind, and Body will define us. - It is when we create for God's highest healing good, with Purpose and Passion, that Life becomes Joyous”.

Linda L. Thompson, BS, LMT is a graduate of the CNW School of Massage Therapy in Colonie, NY. She is also a Reiki Master and Craniosacral practitioner. She offers an integrative approach combining Swedish and Therapeutic Massage, intuitive bodywork and prayer. She states...."As human beings, we are much more than our physical body. We are BODY/MIND/SPIRIT. My intention is to create a safe and nurturing environment for everyone that I touch and to honor, respect and treat the whole person." She loves movement and dance of all kinds, from Tai Chi to Salsa and has led events that empower women to connect spiritually through meditation, sound and movement. Healing through sound has been a passion for many years and she has produced a CD called Soul Songs which is a transformational CD for healing and meditation.

Water of Life

*Water of life, wash away fear, cleanse me of doubt,
make my way clear,
nurture me, nourish me that I may grow,
filled by your life force, 'til I overflow spilling the Spirit that others may be touched by the water that gives life to me.*

Water of life, wherever you flow

*love, faith and hope and sincerity grow.
May I be claimed by your current of peace.
Awash in your blessings, my joy will increase.
Then, will all those I meet,
by my love come to know
why I sing as I worship,
“O flow, Water, flow!”*

About the Author/Leader

Rev. Dale Lindsay Morgan was author of the Horizons 2004–2005 Bible study, What She Said: Quotable Women in Scripture and the companion piece, What She (could have) Said. As Bible Study Leader for Churchwide Gatherings of Presbyterian Women at Ames (1994) and Louisville (2006) Dale created the character the Gathering Woman, to present original biblical monologues from “archaeological discoveries” dating to biblical times.

Dale holds bachelors and masters degrees in communications and M.Div. and D.Min. degrees with a concentration in early church history. She has served as pastor of congregations in Claremont and Santa Barbara, California, and was an elected member of the General Assembly Council and the Board of Trustees of San Francisco Theological Seminary. For this study she has created two companion pieces, Eyewitness News, nine television transcripts of interviews with the principle participants in the Luke’s accounts of Jesus’ ministry, and My Journey with Jesus, a journal for participants to use for spiritual growth as they read Jubilee! Luke’s Gospel for the Poor.

Join the women and men who deeply value the importance of the Bible in their faith journey in this weekend Bible Study Workshop led by the author of the study booklet herself.
