God's Promise: I Am With You

By Amy Poling Sutherland

"I will be with you."
"I am with you."

These words—God's words to God's people—convey a profound truth for God's people. God is with us. Throughout scripture, God promises to accompany each of us throughout our lives and the lives of generations before and after us.

"I will be with you." "I am with you."

The 2017–2018 PW/Horizons Bible study, God's Promise: I Am with You, takes readers on a journey through scripture to consider circumstances in which God articulated God's promise of presence. This study does not delve deeply into manifestations of God's presence—the tabernacle, the ark of the covenant, manna, the Temple, pillars of cloud and fire—but rather on God's actual articulation of God's promise. We will see anew that God offered these words of profound comfort and commitment to individuals and communities from the time of the patriarchs to that of the prophets; from the judges to the kings; before, during, and after the exile; into the New Testament and beyond, to the end of the age.

Amy Poling Sutherland

grew up in Texas and New Mexico, the middle child of a 6th-generation pastor. A graduate of Austin College and Princeton Theological Seminary, she has been a missionary in Malawi, Africa, a teacher in inner-city Dallas, and a pastor of churches in West Virginia and Texas. Amy currently serves (with her husband, Joshua) as co-pastor of First Presbyterian Church in San Marcos, Texas. She is also thrilled (frazzled/daunted/amused) to be the mother of Serena (11), Asher (9), Josiah (7), and Micah (5). Amy's life is filled with laughter, liturgy, and laundry, and though she doesn't have much time for hobbies, she loves writing, travelling, and good tortillas.
